THERE IS NONE BETTER.

Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventive and cure for croup. This most excellent medicine is for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

CHILE'S BACKDOWN!

She Makes an Abject Apology to the United States.

San Francisco, January 28th, per Barkentine W. H. Dimond.

The first reports of Chile's having made an apology were meager and not altogether satisfactory. Fuller despatches received later have made an impression in Washington that danger of war is over. Chairman Blount of the House Committee on Foreign Relations, in speaking of Chile's latest despatch, said: "The whole matter is settled, and nothing but the preliminaries remain to be arranged. The apology made by Chile is as complete as it could possibly be. It speaks with profound regret of the attack on the Baltimore's sailors. It declares a sincere feeling of friendship for the United States and a profound respect for our flag and uniform. They speak feelingly of the presence of the American men-of-war in their ports during the revolution, and of the friendly attitude of our officers and men at that time." Further, Blount said the Chileans are willing to leave the matter of reparation to the United States Supreme Court. The despatch covered six or seven pages of foolscap.

ANOTHER SIDE.

Pending the publication of the Government's despatch to the Washington Government, there is great excitement in Chile. The younger patriotic people, whose sentiment is that of a large element, talk in favor of a resort to arms rather than submission to the United States. Naval men, referring to the possibility of being called on to salute the American flag, say they would see the Chilean fleet sunk before they would salute the flag of the United States. Matta's popularity, it is said, will not be decreased on account of his offensive note which stirred up warlike feeling in the United States. While the Government was deliberating on the precise language to be used in its apologetic note, a committee of leading citizens were making active preparations to honor Matta with a grand banquet. Peruvian public opinion is on the side of the United States, and officers of the army and navy would eagerly enlist in hostilities against their old enemy.

The sentiment on the Isthmus of Panama has been offensively against the United States. Survivors of the Preston rebellion openly denounce the Americans and advocate the co-operation of all the South American republics in defense of Chile in case of hostilities. The papers, excepting the Star-and-Herald, support Chile's cause.

One of the European passengers writes to the Chronicle complaining that the station is over crowded, and that the Europeans are forced to stay with the Chinese and Japanese.

Capt. Cullicott of the condemned bark Malay, who arrived at San Francisco from Tahiti by the barkentine City of Papeete, reports the yacht Beagle there. "Douglass and Bloom" alias Bell and Davis were flush of money, paying him a high price for a set of South American charts. They entertained the British Consul on board. Their furniture bought and used in Honolulu was still packed, and they stuck closely to their vessel. They said they had cashed a draft in Honolulu, and their reason for leaving was they were tired of the place.

KAUAI ELECTION.

National Reform Party Ahead—A Candidate Who Defeated Himself.

Election day on Kauai passed off rather quietly all over the island. The National Reform party elected their ticket in spite of considerable doubts previous to election.

August Dreier, candidate for Noble on the Reform ticket, was at a great disadvantage throughout the campaign, owing to his inability to either read or write English. His opponent, E. Lindemann, and forces made good use of Dreier's deficiencies.

Lindemann, notwithstanding his advantage, lost ground by his lack of consistency during the campaign. He had printed a circular letter in English and one in Hawaiian, the contents of which suited, as he thought, to each nationality. For a time he gained ground, but by the palpable misconstruction and contradiction of the two circulars he ruined what at first were fair chances of being elected. The result was he has been so completely snowed under that he will fail to find anything noble about it.

Wilcox led Kahilina a close contest for Representative in the Hanalei District. Had it not been for the third precinct coming to his rescue he would not be the Representative at the next Legislature.

Representative Smith received a handsome majority from the Lihue District. Akins receives a majority from the Waimea District. Had the convention that met at Lihue some weeks ago to make its nominations better heeded the advice and request of some, perhaps the result there would be somewhat different.

The following is a statement of votes for each candidate:

AN ASTRONOMER TUMBLES.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—If your mild criticism of my original article had been directed to the words quoted in your editorial of Saturday evening, I should have followed the example of the Pali road and caved in at once. That the three heavenly bodies should appear almost to touch was such a palpable absurdity that at first I felt confident that I had written no such words. As it is, I do not regret the soft impeachment, but acknowledge my error.

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South—Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BRIALS, JR., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.
